SISTERS GETTING READY TO MARCH TO AUGUSTANA

free people's health clinic

On February 28, Augustana cut off all the services to the Fritzi Englestein Clinic, which is the Free Peoples' Health Clinic in our neighborhood. Augustana had been pretty sloppy for a long time, losing our tests, throwing some away, just plain refusing to help out the Free Peoples Clinic. They had made an agreement to provide tests, X-rays and supplies to the clinic, but now they were going against their own word. They said they were interested in serving the poor people of the community, but now they had decided it was against their own interests (Money) to help the clinic survive. Our clinic was proving that pig medicine isn't worth shit.

So the people seized the time! We all marched down the middle of Lincoln Ave. chanting, "Health Care is a Human Right--All Power to the People!" Latins, Blacks, and whites---kids, men, women, freaks, greasers, all kinds of people!

The Hospital sent their lackies out to try and persuade us to come back some other time. Mr. Bennett, the President, had slipped out the emergency entrance, and was on his way home to the suburbs. Bennett's lacky, Mr. Ryan, said he couldn't be reached--he assured us he'd call us in a few days and let us know if Bennett would see us or not. But just then, more than 100 community people jumped up and told Ryan he'd better get on the phone because, "We're ready now!" We must have scared the hell out of him, cause he called Bennett. Ryan kept trying to corner individuals, but the people stuck together on their demands and the Hospital finally agreed to meet us the next Sunday on people's turf, and on People's terms.

On the way home from Augustana Hospital, the spirit of the people was so strong, they sang all the way back up Lincoln, throwing stones and snowballs at all the pig cars, Brinks trucks, and Cadillacs that passed. The pigs didn't mess with us, because none of them wanted to stop alone with all those people there.

Last Sunday, Bennett did show. He brought his Public Relations Man, his Minister, and one other man (who runs the medical part of the hospital). These 4 kept babbling about failures to communicate. So then Bob Ostler told how Augustana had operated on his broken hip and then threw him out when Bob ran out of Money. But Bennett said he wasn't responsible for all the doctors at his hospital, it wasn't his fault.

Marie from the Clinic told how she almost lost her baby when Augustana refused her emergency delivery. They told her to go to Cook County. Bennett said he was sorry about that.

Betty's baby was in Augustana with pneumonia in an oxygen tent. Then they took the oxygen tent away without the doctor's orders. When Betty tried to get her baby out of there, the Hospital told her she couldn't take her baby until she paid the bill. Bennett shook his head and oinked, "Everyone's got these horror stories and I believe you all, but you know, nothing's perfect."

Barbara was at Augustana for possible Hepititis. She was supposed to be in isolation, but they stuck her in a double with a genuine Hep case. That's why she was so angry at Augustana at the meeting, Now that she's being treated by the People's Clinic, she's getting better. This time Bennett was silent.

Maybelle told how the Free Clinic was the first place she had been where she was treated in a kind, curteous way and where she felt she could trust the medical treatment. She explained that she worked full time and had enough money to keep her head above water, but no one had ever said a thing about any money at all, because it's all free.

A sister from Rising Up Angry summed it up when she said, "Either you say yes to the demands, or you say no and declare war on this community!"

The pigs were cornered and knew they better agree to start up some of the services they had cut. So they have temporarily started doing alittle to stop the pressure from the community. We're still fighting Augustana Hospital. It's only just begun. They will continue to hear from the people until every hospital and every doctor in this country is FREE! Free for every man, woman,and child for their entire life!

RIGHT ON !

If you're checking out the Black Panther Party in Chicago, the first thing that hits you is all the motion. In Chicago alone, they have two community centers, five breakfast programs, a free busing program, clothing programs, a well-functioning clinic and numerous liberation schools--to mention just a few. And the Chicago Panthers are not the exception. Nationally Panther "Serve the People" programs are expanding. There are 44 Panther chapters and new ones are continually opening. This might come as a surprise to some people, because if you just read the pig press, you'd get the impression that the Panthers are dying.

We in Rising Up Angry want to make one thing stone clear--The Black Panther Party is far from dead. It continues to serve the people, deal with the fascist pigs and give leadership to the people. This doesn't mean that there is not turmoil going on within the Party. At present there are two groups that claim to be the Black Panther Party. One is headed by Eldridge Cleaver and has its national headquarters in New York City. Its members consist mainly of people who were kicked out of the Black Panther Party. The other, which is the REAL Black Panther Party, is headed by Huey P. Newton and has its headquarters in Oakland, California.

To some people who are uncommitted or new to the revolution, these tensions are a sign of weakness. These people are afraid that the splits mean that the revolutionary forces are weak and divided and thus will never be able to destroy the pigs. This is incorrect. For the struggle in the Party is a sign of strength, of struggle and of growth. For it is two groups with different ideas and styles that are struggling over the correct and quickest way to make and win the revolution. And it is thru this struggle and its outcome that we will learn the best method to move.

Rising Up Angry refers to the organization headed by Huey P. Newton as the true Panther Party because we believe that they are exerting correct leadership. In other words, we feel that they are doing what needs to be done in America today. Basically, what Huey has stressed is the need to work on many levels--all geared toward educating the people about the meaning of revolution. On one level, this means building survival programs such as the free breakfast program. Through these programs the people will better understand the meaning of a society based on meeting people's needs. These survival programs are also important in that they are geared toward physically and mentally strengthening the people. When someone has received good medical care, eaten nutritional food and received a revolutionary education, she or he is better prepared to fight and win victories for the people. For some people, this point does not seem important. But for the millions of Americans who have been living a sub-standard existence in America, who have tasted hunger, whose energies have been drained by their daily existence, survival programs very much deal with their survival.

Huey has also never said that these survival programs are sufficient tools for building the revolution. The symbol of Huey P. Newton with a 12 gauge pump speaks to the other level. The level of armed struggle --the need to build a people's liberation army that is well armed and militarily trained to seize power. Basically, it is on this level that the disagreement between the Party and the disagreeing faction is heaviest. Eldridge's group has stated that the focus of revolutionary work should be on armed actions--such as gun rip-offs, sabotage, pig assassinations, etc. The disagreement is not over the need for this to happen, but over the timing and the focus. Huey has always made it clear that there is no good defense without an offense. In other words, revolutionary groups should have sections whose main task is building an underground and doing military actions. But he also has always made it clear that revolution is made by the people and led by revolutionaries who are deeply rooted in the people. Revolution is not won by kamikazees. Correct strategy is not made from frustration. It seems to Rising Up Angry that the tendency of Cleaver's group leans toward kamikazeeism. This does not mean that we question the need to build an underground or to prepare militarily. This is obviously necessary so that when the situation (like an invasion of North Vietnam) calls for a heavy response, revolutionaries are prepared to act.

Rising Up Angry also questions the motivations of some of the people in Cleaver's faction. We question the sincerity of a liberation fighter who pushes splits at a time when the Party as well as all the revolutionary forces should be rallying behind Chairman Bobby and sister Ericka, who are now facing trial. We also question some of the people who are not in either the Party or Cleaver's group who have seized this conflict as grounds for discrediting the Panthers. Many of these people were always and will continue to be racist, opportunist dogs who never really supported or understood the Panthers' struggle for liberation and are now using the conflict as a cover. Others are people who pretend to be revolutionaries. Those that sit back, do no work for the people, but are the first to criticize and take a hard line position on internal movement conflicts. To these people we say: OFF YOUR ASS and start doing your part to build the revolution, for the Panthers are doing theirs.

LONG LIVE THE SPIRIT OF THE SUPREME SERVANT OF THE PEOPLE--HUEY P. NEWTON!!

LIVE ROCK

The Syndrome is closed. No longer can you pay $5 for the privilege of sweating through three acts and having someone vomit his or her downers down the back of your shirt. No longer will 22nd Century Productions make tens of thousands of dollars for a few hours work. No longer will you be able to pay $15 for an ounce of oregano and $2 an ounce for a tab of aspirin.

The Syndrome was closed because it was a fire hazard, but it - and places like it - are also a hazard to to the energy and freedom of rock music. Over the last few years, stars and promoters, old straights and greedy longhairs have packaged and sold rock in psychedelic supermarkets all over the country. Now FM bullshitters syndicate their ego-trips over 'Love Radio' while magazines from Time to Rolling Stone tell you what your ears should like and your body should move to.

In case you think that rock magically transcends the realities that affect other parts of our lives, here are some examples of the nonsense we accept as part of our culture:

Last year WCFL sponsored a 'rock festival' at Soldier's Field, complete with an ad campaign full of peace signs. Last week WCFL banned 'One Toke Over the Line', 'White Rabbit', and other doper favorites because of their 'suggestive lyrics'.

Here is a musical question:

John Lennon's new hit is called 'Power to the People'

John Lennon will make about $7,000,000 more from the Beatles - even though the group no longer exists.

How much money will John Lennon give to help get some power for the people?

In Chicago, the rock business is centered on Wacker Drive and Michigan Avenue. The people who work for the record companies and ad agencies don't rap about songs - they talk about 'product.' They don't turn you on to something they dig - they 'hype' the product the company wants to sell. They don't worry about repression and busts and bail - they put out ads that say 'The man can't bust our music.'

Here is another musical question:

If you can go out along Cermak Road and press a small number of LPs and covers for quite a bit less than a buck a throw, how come best-selling records cost what they do?

WDAI wasn't making much of a profit, so — they started something called 'The Electric Classifieds'. For $10 - they play five fifteen-second ads. That comes out to $8 a minute, about what wealthy stores pay for their ads.

WDAI calls this hustle - 'People's Advertising'

If Bob Dylan thinks there's a New Morning at hand, what was he doing trying to buy $150,000 worth of midtown New York real estate 'for investment purposes'?

WBBM-FM (CBS) surrounds its 'underground' music with raps as alive as those on the obituary page of the daily paper. They go out of their way to be plastic and boring and never put songs in any kind of far-out order.

WBBM calls its rock show 'The Young Sound'

Kinney Corporation owns Warner Brothers and a chain of parking lots.

Kinney Corporation is owned by International Telephone and Telegraph.

Kinney Corporation just signed the Rolling Stones to a $5,000,000 contract.

Does this mean the Rolling Stones will be working for the telephone company?

WGLD hired Scorpio as the first FM rock DJ in the city. When he started, he made about $45 for 25 hours of late-night broadcasting.

The Jefferson Airplane live in a mansion and record for RCA. RCA also owns Sperry-Rand, which makes rockets. Hijack the starship?

WDAI's newest DJ is a guy named Bruce. He talks about love and good vibes all the time. He is also the biggest ripoff ever to walk Lincoln Avenue, having burnt people for skis, rented cars and more heady things.

One of Steve Stills' songs is called 'For What It's Worth'. He ought to know, having just taken over a $750,000 manor in England.

WGLD often plays an hour of new releases. For some reason, they're generally on Capitol Records. It couldn't have anything to do with Capitol being the sponsor, could it?

A final musical question:
If Group A costs $7,500
and If Group B costs $500
and If Group C costs $300
and expenses total $20,000 tops
How much did the Syndrome make when it pulled in 10,000 people at $5 a head?

There are good, bad and ugly sides of freak culture. Good vibes - are when the people get together, drink a little wine, smoke a little reefer and listen to and dance to some killer jams. Bad vibes - are when some people do it all the time and forget that we've got work to do - a revolution to make - for all the people. But, the ugliest vibes of all are when the hippigs use our good times for profit and passivity. Ain't no way these culture vultures are gonna survive! The Syndrome may try to open again - in the loop somewhere. Be sure to stop by and demand the people's money for people's survival programs. If they look like they don't understand - it's because they don't and it's time for some education - by any means necessary!

STONE GREASE GRAPEVINE

Mike James To Go To Trial

Mike James is a member of Rising Up Angry's Central Staff. On October 7, 1969, he was arrested at an anti-war demonstration near Lincoln Park.

He was charged with a multi-count indictment, including disorderly, resisting arrest, mob action, aggravated battery, and unlawful use of a weapon. Offers from the enemy to dispose of the case have brought no satisfaction. The offer is an attempt to take this brother off the street, away from the people. Their offer is 60 days in prison, and three years probation, with an assurance that if Mike James violates probation he will get 2 to 8 years. The judge made it very clear that to continue doing revolutionary work would be a probation violation. 2 to 8 means an 8 year sentence. To accept this deal means giving up first amendment rights. It would mean accepting the fascists' terms.

Mike James is going to trial. The trial will begin sometime around the end of April. It is very important that brothers and sisters throughout this city attend the trial to show support for Mike, for Rising Up Angry and the Revolution. Angry urges all our people to stay in contact with the central office for specific information as to the trial date. Prepare to bring friends to see how justice is carried out in this fascist city, this fascist country.

SOUTH WEST SIDE TRASH FORCE - AT IT AGAIN!

The southwest side of Chicago is like the last frontier in the city - the pigs have been trying to keep it untouched by the revolution. But, the revolution reaches everyone, everywhere and the pigs are going haywire trying to stop it.

There is a pretty hip store that sells Angries - Triangle II at 11042 So. Kedzie. The manager, Frank Amato, was sitting in his car when Officer Goles (star 2424) came by and busted him for vagrancy. Now, old Goles has been on the force for 38 years and he's still a patrolman. His favortie passtime is hasseling greasers and freaks - who refer to him as Big John.

Well anyway, when big John got to the station with Frank and started to file the vagrancy complaint, he was a little embarrased cause Frank had a large sum of money in his pocket. But he thought quickly and charged him with disorderly.

Meanwhile, the 'serve and protect' idiots were towing Franks car away - in PARK. They pulled it till the car broke down and then towed it to the pound - $750 worth of damage. As a matter of fact, south side pigs are famous for trashing cars - remember when they totalled two of Angries cars a few months back?

Came court day and Frank was there with his lawyer - but big John didn't show. We hear John is pretty up-tight these days - he can't deal with the fact that Frank has a lawyer. What a punk! Hey, big John - see you in court - if you ever get the nerve to show up!

SELF-DEFENSE GROUP

MAGNOLIA & WRIGHTWOOD

Me and my friends were in front of my buddies house. This pig next door was starting to give us some trouble. We started to break his gate - so he came out and we called him every name in the book. He came out and caught my friend and we started walking - but I picked up a brick and cracked him behind the head. The next thing I knew, the pig was in the hospital.

Pigs continue to occupy our neighborhood and harass our people! So, the people will continue to defend themselves against the dogs!

Power to the Revolutionaries at Magnolia and Wrightwood!

TRICK AT MILWAUKEE & BEL.

Dig up brothers & sisters there's a known trick operating in the neighborhood. He works right in the neighborhood pretending he's a brother, but he's not---he's a pig. He has been positively identified by someone who he had busted and testified against in court. This pig knows who we're talking about and we just want to make it clear to him that we're hip to him and we're not going to tolerate his tricking anymore. If you know whats good for you get the fuck out of the peoples faces.

SIGNED: THE SISTERS & BROTHERS OF BELMONT & MILWAUKEE

SISTERS BUSTED FOR SPREADING THE WORD

Three of us sisters went into the currency exchange at the Wilson 'L' station to get something. On our way out we stopped to show the paper to the people leaving. Right away pigs surrounded us and started asking questions. When I started telling the younger sisters of their rights (we just have to give our name and address) the pigs pulled us into a corner and separated us. They didn't dig us sticking together—especially when we were standing up for our rights and not saying anything. So they took us to 11th & State. After questioning the younger sisters they let them go—cause they knew they had nothing to book them on. But they busted me with three raps. Angry and friends got me out. While I was in there, and they were trying to be big shots, I ripped off their confidential papers and some other stuff.

They think they can stop us so easy? The next day we were back out working twice as hard. And we're opening a new office. And while we were in, one of the young pigs, looking through the paper, saw his own cousin was a revolutionary! All power to the people who fight for the people!

DEATH TO THE FASCIST PIGS!

SLICK SNIPER

Some brothers in the Bryn Mawr and Broadway area were having a quarrel on the street when the pigs came by and tried to put their porks worth in. The brothers split up and the pigs followed one who led them tc his home and waited for them to come. When they did - the brother sniped on them and held them down until he could get rid of his piece. The pigs broke down his door but couldn't find his piece.

ALL POWER TO THE SLICK SHOOTERS!

LOW-LIFE MENACE AT LELAND & SHERIDAN

There's a menace in the neighborhood—it's a low-lifed pig named Joe. Now Joe thinks he's bad so he goes around the neighborhood beating people for no reason at all. But that's what all pigs do. What makes Joe such a low-lifed dog is that he has been around Uptown for a long time, pretending to be a friend of the people. Pig Joe used to be a teacher at the old JOBS school above Johnny's Red Hots. Now Joe is teaching us a lot more—more about the true nature of pigs than when he was pretending to be a teacher.

But we're going to teach Pig Joe how the people deal with traitors to the people.

YOUTH-

WILL MAKE THE REVOLUTION

Some of the younger brothers and sisters from around the neighborhood have been getting more active in Rising Up Angry---now we all know that youth will make the revolution but the interesting thing is that the kids are educating their parents. The kids are yelling off the pig, and their parents are backing them up---some mothers are appearing at the shopping centers wearing fist buttons and giving the fist. When the teachers at school vamp on the kids---their parents are telling the teachers off. Now---some of the parents act like reactionary chumps, but with five or six revolutionary kids in the house they'd better think twice before they bad rap latins, blacks and the younger generation.

Reactionary parents have no rules that revolutionary children are bound to respect!

POWER TO THE KIDS!

WHAT I THINK OF SCHOOL

School is a drag. The work is boring and we don't learn anything. The teachers are like cops---do this and do that and before you know it they have your mother or father called in. School is like the city dump---and we're not garbage. The back---stabbing pigs are all over the place---it's like a six hour prison.

AUDY HOME - HOUSE OF HORROR

There are many poor people that struggle daily just to provide food, health care and clothing for their families - in short, they are struggling to survive. These people, like most of us, work when they can but employment is hard to find and they're the first to lose their jobs. Even when we are working, our salaries don't cover the barest essentials for our needs. The most brutal way this system operates is when it decides to punish us for being poor by taking away our children and putting them in state homes - prisons.

Two sisters, named Faith and Hope, were sent to the Audy Home at ages 6 and 8 because they hadn't been in school. They weren't in school because they didn't have any clothes and when they were in class the teacher had made fun of them and told the class they were on welfare. When they got to the Audy Home they were given a lot of tests and then assigned to a room.

The floors were dirty and the bed clothes were torn and dirty. They made the girls scrub the floors on their hands and knees and if the matron didn't like it, she'd make them do it all over again. If you don't do what they want you to do , you get thrown in isolation. Faith saw people screaming and jumping around crying because it's so bad in there. In isolation they have 4 inch windows with bars and the doors are always locked - like in prison.

The girls food was served with pins and bugs in it and when one sister complained, the matron accused her of doing it herself. The cabinets have bugs in them - I guess that was the girls fault too! Once a matron opened a cabinet that was crawling with bugs and she shut the door real quick so no one else would see it.

Faith and Hope are finally out of that 'horror house' but many brothers and sisters are still inside. We must set them free!

Prescott school is really messed up. The first time I went there I knew it would be a real hassle. The teachers are chumps and they know they aren't teaching us anything but lies - so they beat us. They don't have any equipment on the playground and dig this - the teachers let the guys smoke outside but not the girls! Now ain't that a bitch!

The principal of the school just walks around trying to look bad and trying to turn one group against the other. What we've got to remember is we're all brothers and sisters and those chumpy teachers and that creep of a principal are our enemies! Let's stick together and teach each other - about the revolution!

PEOPLE RIP OFF FBI SECRET FILES

One of the games the pigs try on us is that we can never beat them. They want to make us believe that they are super-smart and super-slick and even if we want to change things we won't be able to because they're so together. Well-the pigs can be beaten. We can outsmart them and out fight them.

The latest example that "the power of the people is greater than the man's technology" is that a group called Citizens Commission to Investigate the FBI, ripped off a bunch of secret FBI files. The FBI is is supposed to be so together but the super pigs got their files ripped off. Dig how together the people are!

These files disclose what we already know - the FBI engages in illegal activities, pays informers, taps phones and attempts to intimidate people. Their repressive activity is mostly directed at revolutionaries, especially blacks because they know revolutionaries will fight to put the power in the People's hands.

The pigs are being exposed daily for their weaknesses and for their illegal, anti-people activity.
Right On to all anti-pig activity.

The People's Food Program opened in Cabrini Green just a few weeks ago. The food program is a survival program, it's a necessary program to keep our brothers and sisters alive and healthy in order to throw off the oppressor and make this revolution.

The pigs moved on it early, trying to harass the people who work on the program, but it is alive and growing! We need money, food, transportation, or your time. Give all you can and drop it off at the People's Information Center at 2154 N. Halsted.

TWO BROTHERS BEATEN BY INSANE FASCISTS

A brother named Paul Blackwell, came back from Nam last Thursday morning after being shot in the back by a Lieutenant because he beat a case in military court. He came to Uptown to see his brother Jesse. They decided to go to a restaurant to have a bite to eat and they happened to go to a place called the Plantation on Broadway near Argyle. The pigs eat there all the time because they get food for free. The brothers finished eating and left and decided to take a piss out back. When they came out front, a pig (that is trying to build a reputation) jumped Paul, talking 'bout 'your under arrest motherfucker!', then hit him. Then pigs poured out from everywhere. They beat and beat on the brothers and the crowd that stood around told the dozen or so pigs to stop. The pigs told them to 'get the fuck out!' In the end the pigs had busted Pauls collar bone and beat him severely and Jesse, a 31 year old veteran with three kids, was also beaten badly. When the brothers got bonded out (for bullshit disorderly charges) both had to go to the hospital for treatment for broken bones and bruises.

G.I. REBELLION IN LAOS

GI's all over Indo China have been refusing to fight for a long time. The reason they refuse to fight is because they understand that Americans have no business in Indo China that they are there only to support the few wealthy fascists of Vietnam, Laos and Cambodia who are acting in cahoots with American pig businessmen and Pentagonized ba--boons to rape their countries. The average GI understands that his fight is against these same pigs that means he has more in common with a Viet-cong or a Pathet Lao than with General Abrams, Dick Nixon or his commanding officer.

The latest troop rebellion to be reported was when 2 platoons of American armored cavalrymen refused orders to advance along highway 9 near the Laotian border. Their commanding officer, Capt. Poveda, was relieved of duty. Of course, changing commanding officers won't make our brothers in the service more willing to die for some rich pig investment in Vietnam. All we can say to our courageous brothers in the service who refuse to do the pigs dirty work, is Right On. And when you get back home share your military knowledge with the people because we're building our own people's army to free the citizens of the world from U.S. pig domination and we need your help.

UPTOWN PIGS HASSLE SISTER

We were walking down the street in Uptown and selling Rising Up Angry. It was cold and we went into a hotel lobby to warm up. When we came out some pigs, who had been watching us, stopped us and frisked us, even me and I'm a girl. Then they said we were doing something wrong in the hotel, just to try and bust us. These chumps took down our names and said they'd see us again. Well, we're still going to sell the paper---but when the pig saw I was a little nervous he said, "Don't worry---us pigs don't eat little girls." I said---Ha! but I should have said, "But us girls do eat pork!"

HEROIC PEOPLE OF WINSTON-SALEM, CARRY ON

Among the vicious attacks that have been waged against the Black Panther Party, the N.C.C.F. chapter in Winston-Salem, North Carolina has been a target of police repression. Their office, attacked by over a hundred pigs and the scene of a shootout, has been burned out. Their daycare center has been attacked by the oinking menaces, they've been evicted by racist realtors and their sisters and brothers have been given jail sentences for up to 20 years. All this is the pigs way of showing contempt for the heroic people and their serve the people programs that are necessary for their survival. The peoples' spirit will not be shattered by the racist dogs and their bullets—in fact, under the leadership of the B.P.P. more people will join to build the programs again and the courageous people of Winston-Salem will grow stronger knowing they have to defend these programs and make this revolution by any means necessary.

DADE COUNTY PRISON REVOLT

The beatings and inhuman conditions that exist inside the prisons of this country have resulted with the inmates taking action to change their situation.

Inside Dade County Prison, in Florida, 2 guards were captured and held as hostages in order to get the attention of the newsmen to present their demands to the people. The demands were directed at overcrowded cells, billy club beatings and poor or no medical care. There are 30 men in 16 men cells, this not only causes tensions because of too many people in too little space, but also leaves men without mattresses. Sleeping on the floor of the cell causes illness and then there is no medical treatment for the inmates. But the brutal beating of Johnnie Lee Jones on Feb. 3rd was the last straw and touched off a revolt. Right On! Revolution in the Jails - on the streets - in the schools - in the army - everywhere!

Dig this. A brother slapped his father. The father calls the pigs. So the brother spaced out for one night--the next night when the brother came back two pigs walked in the house beat him with their clubs, busted him and cuffed him. One of the two fascist dogs goes by the name of Friday.

This is being printed to inform brothers and sisters of menaces that go by the name of "police" and as a warning that the fascist dogs must cease their brutality and withdraw from our neighborhoods or face the armed wrath of the people.

THE ONLY GOOD PIG HAS AN APPLE IN ITS MOUTH!

LETTERS FROM BROTHERS

Dear People
I really dig the RUA paper. I just started getting into the revolutionary movement, and I was wondering if you could print this in your paper. We were standing in a hamburger drive-in on 51st & May, (there were 5 of us) when 8 pigs came in, found some dope, and right away busted us. The pig told the desk jerk that he saw me stash it. A big pig lie! Someone informed them where it was so they blame me for trying to push it. I would appreciate it if you printed this to tell the people, the way the fascist dogs act.

REPRESSION IN PONTIAC

Brothers and Sisters:

Been really getting into your paper and comparing things between Chicago and Pontiac. Finding there isn't a hell of a lot of difference. We haven't got any services here - like you have - because the pigs shut them down shortly after they opened. We had a far out thing called Freedom City, that offered legal aid, medical help, counseling and crash pads. The pigs closed it down because of complaints from parents and because we had it together. As an example of pig repression - 2 months ago the pigs pulled a raid on three apartments in our building. They kicked in the doors, refused to show a warrant, told no-one they were under arrest and didn't inform us of our rights. Seven of us were taken down to the pig sty where we were held for three hours. Four of us were released because of lack of charges, but three were held, two for possession of illegal weapons (sawed-off shotgun) and one for felonious assault on a police officer, he didn't touch.

We are still fighting for freedom here...and brothers and sisters - we'll never quit!

Dear Rising Up Angry,

Come Thursday afternoon,
I'll be in the zoo.
With all the pigs pointing,
staring at me - a freak.
I'll look at them and laugh
I'm me and you're nothing
I love people and they love me -
All the people.
Except pigs, parents and shrinks.

I'm 18 years old and because I fight racism and believe in the people and stand with my sisters for women's liberation---I'm being sent to a cage by a shrink who thinks I must be crazy. You are beautiful people and someday we'll make the revolution and put the real lunatics behind bars---like they are doing to me.

All Power to the People!---Low La

Dear Angry,

Hear me out on this story. I brought some R.U.A. papers to school and started to pass them out. So my home - room teacher said I was trying to start a revolution to take over the school. She sent me down to the office and the principal started talkin' fancy and then the fascist dog called the pigs. They brought me home and I got kicked out of school for a week. If your reading this, principal, this is a warning - I'm after you. And when I find you - you won't live to see the revolution.

"We were told at Ft. Bragg, that Vietnam wasn't much of a war, that the Vietnamese were inferior, but that it was the only war we had and we had to make the best of it."

---Former staff sergeant George Smith, a Vietnam vet and ex - POW.

The best of it - means one of the most brutal, savage chapters in the history of the world. An entire people and their nation - being barbarically destroyed in the name of profits for the few. The few, better known as the American Vultures; General Motors, Chase Manhattan, etc. And we sit back pretendint it's not happening. After all - statistics never freaked anyone out. Millions killed - but what is a million, especially when Nixon tells us that - after all - Cambodia was invaded in the name of PEACE. PEACE - a much over-used word - but where is it and why hasn't it happened.

Sometimes it's easy to forget. Do your thing. Get high. After all, Vietnam is so far away. But it isn't. It's being destroyed in our name, our money and our brothers and our sons lives are sacrificed. And it's far from being over.

Three weeks ago, in Detroit, Vietnam vets from all over the country, met to testify to the American people about what is really coming down. They knew the statistics passed most people by - but they felt that their words, their horrified memories, might shock people to reality - and to move them to stop the war in Vietnam.

The following is their testimony - to you:

"I saw a woman who was shot by a sniper, lying on the ground when we reached her. She was asking for water. 'Kill her,' the lst lieutenant told us. She was stripped naked and stabbed through both breasts and a trenching tool handle was shoved up inside her. She was still asking for water and bleeding when they took the tool out and shoved a tree limb up her. Then they cut her throat. She still wasn't dead. The lieutenant told someone to shoot her. I shot her."

"The orders were through the chain of command from the C.O. of the squadron who was a lieutenant colonel or higher up. The orders were that we never count the prisoners as we were loading them onto the aircraft. We were only to count them as we unloaded. This was because the prisoners were gagged and bound, both hand and foot, and some of them were thrown off the aircraft after we were airborne. When we unloaded the prisoners on the ground, the crew would take their hands and feet and throw them as far as they could and they would land on a rock or the ground. If they broke their necks, that was just part of the game.

--testimony from Rusty Sachs, 27, a former captain.

MR. WARNER: What the hell, when you lose your only son you are going to think about it day and night and a truck driver has a lot of time to think while driving on the road...On the question of the war. I was a hawk a few years ago but I think it is important to listen to the young people. I have done that. I have talked to a lot of young people. And I don't believe that my son or the life of any American boy or any Vietnamese should be sacrificed to keep Ky in power.

...Even if they let my boy come home now, the basic problem would not be solved. I want all the boys home. All 300,000 or 400,000 Americans, for they are prisoners of war too. I have a special interest in the war and so I have read the eight points in the program of Mrs. Binh. I like her proposals and I think we ought to accept them, get all the boys home, stop blowing up straw houses and killing Vietnamese, and let the people of South Vietnam solve their own problems.

...The Pentagon has especially used the families of prisoners of war. First they ordered us to be silent and then when the stories about the American atrocities were about to break, they had us begin this phony campaign of writing to Hanoi. They have used my wife and they have tried to use me and my daughter, and they have used my son. But it stops here ...

The Vietnamese people are not my enemy. My enemies are those in Washington who keep this war going.

MRS. WARNER: When the National League of Families of Prisoners of War was set up, I was asked to serve as a coordinator and I agreed to do so. I was anxious to meet other families who had boys in the Hanoi prisons. The program, however, never made very much sense to me. When we met in Chicago, one congressman said we were going to withdraw most of the troops but still leave American advisors there. In other words, after all these years of fighting we were going to be back where we started - - except that 50,000 American boys will be dead, many more of them wounded or damaged psychologically and who knows how many Vietnamese killed...

[Mrs. Warner explains how she had been part of a letter writing campaign to Hanoi and how she had arranged for a billboard in her town calling upon Hanoi to free the prisoners.]

I would like to put up a new billboard now – one which reads "President Nixon, End the War So the Prisoners of War Can Come Home."

I know my son well. He could not write the kind of letters to us that he has done if he were not well. He is safer where he is now than the other American boys who are fighting in South Vietnam. The last thing in the world I want is any more bombing of the North. I never wanted Vietnam bombed.

...I would like to meet the Vietnamese people. I really hope they will come to Windsor.

[a delegation had been invited to come to Canada to sign a peace treaty with the vets. Canada refused to give them visas.]

I would like to go up to each one of them and hold their hands in mine and say to them that I am sorry about the bombing of their country and I am terribly sorry that Jim was part of it. It is not much, but what more can I say? I know the Vietnamese are human beings just like we are and I think they would understand.

INDIANS SEIZE APARTMENT BUILDING

For years now we have seen buildings being torn down. We are glad to see these rat holes being demolished, because they are not fit for humans to live in. The only problem is that we cannot afford to live in the new ones being built. And so the Chicago Indian Village has occupied the City-owned apartment building at 4901 - 4909 N. Broadway to show people that they are sick and tired of how badly they are treated. Homeless families are being moved into the building.

At the request of the Chicago Indian Village, the Young Patriot Organization has assisted in occupying this building, and our action is the same as theirs. WE ARE NOT GOING TO MOVE UNTIL SOMETHING IS DONE ABOUT THE PROBLEM OF HOUSING IN UPTOWN'. WE WILL NOT COOPERATE WITH ANY ATTEMPT TO REMOVE US! So far the City has backed down. The City promises to keep the police away, to let us live in the building, and has delivered on demand six tons of coal so we can keep the heat going.

WE DEMAND DECENT HOUSING FOR POOR PEOPLE REGARDLESS OF THEIR ABILITY OR NON - ABILITY TO PAY! WE DEMAND THAT LOW - COST HOUSING BE BUILT IN UPTOWN!

We demand that this building be fully turned over to the Chicago Indian Village to run and maintain, and that any order to tear it down be stopped. We demand that federal and state tax monay be spent NOW to build low - cost housing right here in Uptown, so we don't have to keep moving all over the city and suburbs.

WE CALL ON ALL PEOPLE TO SUPPORT THIS EFFORT TO GAIN DECENT HOUSING FOR ALL OF US!

ALL POWER TO THE PEOPLE!

PIGS TRY TO DIVIDE PEOPLE AT NORTH & MOZART

There are about 40 of us sisters and brothers who hang out around here, right across the street from Humboldt Park. We're sick and tired of the pigs harassing us for nothing. They think they're bad, or something. And the thing that really pisses thses pigs off is the fact that we're not racist. So the pigs try to divide us along race lines—giving whites the breaks and messing over the blacks. They think we'll be fooled into believing that whites and pigs are on the same side.

Like one time they busted 2 of our partners—1 black and 1 white. When they got to the station they cut the white guy loose and kept the black guy. That shit has got to stop. We understand that it's the people against the pigs—not blacks against whites.

An open letter from the people of the Gresham District to all the pigs out of Gresham—especially Huey Bolletto.

You fascist dogs—what happened? Another pig was killed—and this time at 85th & Laflin, about 8 blocks from the Gresham pig sty. Doesn't that scare you a little Bolletto? The people may get you next.

Bolletto has been oinking out of Gresham for a long time, making bullshit arrests and brutalizing the people—he especially hates greasers and has told them so. Well—do all you pig headed, dog faced traitors get an idea that you're not wanted? That's 4 pigs killed this year. Let's make it 400 and make sure Bolletto is included along with Sgt. Darcy, Sgt. A SHORT RAP TO PAULINA & BARRY COMMUNITY

There hasn't been much happening in the hood lately. Most of the brothers and sisters have been hanging around the Belmont Bowl, because of the cold weather. However there are two things that should be laid out to brothers and sisters of the P. B.C.

The first is that there was a fight between two brothers because they were both fucked up from drinking. The fight was cooled out by brothers from the hood, but they were so drunk that it was hard to rap to them. The whole thing was bullshit and caused a lot of bad vibes between brothers. The point is that both brothers couldn't handle their booze. Dig! Brothers and sisters, when we get so fucked up that we wolf on our own people, we only play the pig's game. The pig wants us to fight each other because then he will come and bust us. We must get hip to the pig's game and practise revolutionary discipline. It's alright to get high—but it's stupid to get so fucked up that we act like chumps. In other words, drink only what you can handle.

The other thing, is that there is a pig that comes in to Belmont Bowl by the name of Austin. He struts around and acts nice to the brothers and sisters. Dig! Brothers and sisters, 'A pig, is a pig, is a pig.' Just because he is cool we must remain careful of his every move. For once our backs are turned he will not hesitate to stab us in the back.

Power to the revolutionary brothers and sisters who recognize and fight the real enemy!

WEST PULLMAN PARK - GET READY FOR SPRING

Now that the weather is warming up, Gene and the brothers and sisters at the park are starting to get together and are getting hip to who the real enemy is. The pigs are already out busting people for bullshit charges like drinking and just being on the street. One brother was kidnapped off the street and busted for giving a dog-pig a dirty look. The people from the park must take a stand and defend themselves from these gestapo tactics.

GANG BOPPING

Gang bopping divides the People. It plays into the pigs hands, for when a neighborhood is divided, it is temporarily conquered. Hassles can be avoided. Brothers and Sisters who love the People and fight the real enemy do not fall into the fight each other trap. Revolutionary Brothers and Sisters must be prepared to work hard to unite the People, all the People. We must cool out splits between the People in our neighborhoods and parks. To conduct our lives by revolutionary guidelines provides other Brothers and Sisters with an example. Together the People will triumph. We will build a New Man, a New Woman and a New World. The power of the People is being born. The power of the pigs is a decaying thing. The People will Win!

SWOLLEN PORK

Of all the great pig politicians, Mayor Daley is outstanding for the fact that he actually looks like a pig. He's fat, has jowls, and grunts. And now that it's election time again, a massive campaign is on to convince everyone that his honer is a statesman, visionary, model civic leader, man of the people, etc., etc. But we know better--he's just a pig.

Of course, he has a few critics in the capitalist press. But their criticisms are always limited to suggestions that meybe there are a few too many payrollers, or maybe there's a little graft. Or the smart-ass columnists like Mike Royko make fun of Hizzoner's personal mannerisms. What the bourgeois press will never say is: Mayor Daley is the candidate of big business and the candidate of white supremacy. And it doesn't matter what dip-shit liberal the Republican party puts up, the white racists who own and control the economy of Chicago will place Daley in office again and again and again.

What did Mayor Daley ever do for the people of Chicago? The black people, the poor people, the young people, the working people? We know what he did to fuck them over. It was Mayor Daley who guided the "urban renewal" programs that destroyed the homes of black and Latin people to make way for office buildings and condominiums for the rich. It was Mayor Daley's CHA that said "We would rather build no public housing, than allow blacks to live outside the ghetto." It was Daley's school board that said, "We would rather fill every playground on the South Side with portable trailer classrooms, than let black children go to white schools." It was Mayor Daley's CTA that doubled fares and cut bus routes in the beighborhoods, while planning new subways to McCormick Place and the John Hancock building. It was Mayor Daley who let dope and gambling run wild, but cried "Shoot to kill!" when white-owned business property was threatened. While the greatest need of the people was housing, it was Mayor Daley who built McCormick Place then built it again for the business community. When the people needed medical care, it was Mayor Daley who appointed his own family doctor Health Commissioner--a man who says the reason people are sick is they aren't smart enough to take care of themselves. And when the programs for big business needed more money, it was the Mayor's cronies who gave special tax breaks to the rich to shift the tax burden further onto the shoulders of the poor.

But the Mayor's labors have not gone unnoticed and unrewarded. Because Hizzoner has been such a great mayor, a committee of "citizens" has come forward to boost his re-election. Calling themselves the Non-partisan Committee for Re-election of Mayor Daley, these 'good citizens" have placed dozens of full-page ads in the newspapers listing the names of hundreds of committee members boosting Daley's re-election. Sixteen Co-chairmen and a Treasurer are listed at the top. Who are they? You would never know from reading the names, but Rising Up Angry knows: They are leaders of the ruling class! They are the men who own Chicago, although most of them don't even live here.

Edward F. Blettner of Winnetka, Ill.
Ed is President of the lst National Bank and a director of Zenith Radio.

Kingman Douglass, Jr. of Lake Forest, Ill.
Junior is Executive Vice President of Glore Forgan, a giant firm of investment bankers. He is also a director of Admiral Corp. and the American Stock Exchange. Both he and Ed are trustees of Pres-St. Luke's Hospital.

Donald M. Graham of Evanston, Ill.
Don is Chairman of the Continental Illinois National Bank. He's also a director of Montgomery Ward, American Airlines, Abbott Labs, Illinois Power Co., etc., etc.

Philip M. Klutznick, who actually lives in Chicago.
Phil is Chairman of the Urban Investment & Development Co. He is also a director of American Bank & Trust, the Swiss Israel Trade Bank, and (dig this!) the African-American Institute, a notorious CIA front organization.

C. Virgil Martin of Western Springs, Ill.
C. Virg is president of Carson Pirie Scott (& Co.). He is also a director of Inland Steel, lst Federal Savings & Loan, Northern Ill. Gas, etc., etc.

Michael R. Notaro of Oak Park, Ill.
Mike is President of Statistical Tabulating Corp. and is a director of the Central National Bank and St. Paul Federal Savings & Loan.

Eric Oldberg, M.D., of Lake Forest, Ill.
Eric is a brain surgeon and a friend (creator?) of Mayor Daley. Oldberg's greatest accomplishment was to put Dick Elrod's head back togehter after he tackled a brick wall.

William J. Quinn of Winnetka, Ill.
Bill is President of the Burlington & Quincy RR, and a director of Continental Ill. Bank and Trust, Railway Express, Skil Co., etc., etc.

Fred Regnery of Hinsdale, Ill.
Fred is President of Joanna Mills and Chairman of the Central National Bank. To make sure the money is delivered safely, he is also a director of the Armored Express Co.

Bruce Sagan of (would you believe?) Chicago.
Bruce was added for local color. He publishes some neighborhood newspapers on the South Side.

Ray Schoessling also lives in Chicago.
Ray is Chairman of the Board that runs Mc Cormick Place and is a director of the Marina City Bank. He is also one of the businessmen in charge of labor---he is president of Teamsters Joint Council No. 25.

Leo J. Sheridan of Lake Forest, Ill.
Leo is a real estate tycoon as head of L. J. Sheridan & Co. He is also a director of Chicago Title & Trust, Carson Pirie Scott (& Co.), etc., etc.

John F. Mannion of Oak Park, Ill. is Treasurer of the Committee. John is Chairman of the Hospital Service Corp. (There's money to be made in illness, you know.)

Walter Poranski of Oak Park, Ill.
Do you know who Walt is? Neither do we. Anyone with a line on Walt please call RUA.

Alas, it was necesary to add three more Chicagoans to the board since blacks and Latins are not allowed to live in the suburbs.

George S. Harris
George owns a real estate firm on the South Side which is about as far as blacks are allowed to go in big business.

George Johnson
George built up a small cosmetics firm and used the profits to start a small bank. As a reward, he was the first token black to be added to the board of directors of Commongreed Edison Co.

Sabastian R. Rivera
The ruling class scoured the city looking for a Latin big business man. There is no such thing. Sabastian had to do. He is Puerto Rican attorney.

Then after the list of Co-chairmen of the Non-partisan Committee for Re-election of Mayor Daley, there follows a list of Co-chairmen (sic) of the Women's Division. We know nothing about these women, not even their names. In pig society, the only person who counts is the husband.

Mrs. Arthur S. Bowes who lives on North Lake Shore Drive. Arthur Bowes is a director of the Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul & Pacific RR and the Canteen Corp.

Mrs. William B. Johnson of Lake Forest, Ill.
William Johnson is president of the Ill. Central RR and a director of the Aetna Life Insurance Co.

Mrs. Newton N. Minow of Glencoe, Ill.
Newton Minow was a law partner of the late Adlai Stevenson and Pres. Kennedy made him head of the Federal Communications Commission. What most people don't know is that Newt is a trustee of the Rand Corp., which plans nuclear warfare strategy for the Air Force.

Mrs. John H. Sengstacke of Chicago
John Sengstacke is publisher of the Daily (Daley?) Defender and is a director of Ill. Federal Savings & Loan.

So we're on to you, pig Daley. We know you're only the front man for the bankers, racists and male chauvinists who own and control the city. You're riding high now, but the end is in sight. Some day they're going to call an "election" and nobody's gonna come. Ed Blettner up in Winnetka and Fred Regnery out in Hinsdale are gonna be hiding in their basements! Because the PEOPLE are going to take the power for themselves and build the new man, the new woman, and the new society.

PEOPLE'S BAND, PEOPLE'S MUSIC!

At the last Rising Up Angry Benefit that was held on the North Side a band by the name of Wacker Drive played some dynamite music. They were formerly called the Union but changed their name a few days before the benefit. The band consists of seven guys: Art, the lead singer; Joe, on organ; Bob, handling sax; Tom, behind the drums; Mario, playing bass; Jack, on lead guitar and, Steve, playing trumpet. Wacker Drive is an up and coming group from the North Side.

Angry sat and rapped with the band and it went something like this:

ANGRY: How did you all get together?

WACKER DRIVE: The band as it is today has been together about 2 years. Mario and Jack have been together longer than that–you know in and out of different groups. When we first started out we didn't have any horns, or brass. It started with three of us; the drummer Tom and two guitars, Jack and Mario. Then we just added people.

ANGRY: I take it you all knew each other for a while.

WACKER: Well, Joe and Mario are cousins and Art and Steve are cousins. We really got together through school –Amundson. And the two cousins went to Lane and Senn.

ANGRY: How do you get along?

WACKER: We're always together.

ANGRY: That sounds like a tight group. How have you progressed in your music?

WACKER: When we started out we were doing soul–songs people wanted to hear. We weren[t that good, but good enough. The problems was nobody liked us. Then we figured we would write our own music. We thought we could make it that way. You know a lot of groups come out with a record and they play their own music. But after a year that wasn't cool because we weren't getting any jobs and we had to pay for our equipment and live.

ANGRY: At the benefit the people were really into it, you got them moving. It seems like you went through some changes.

WACKER: Right! What it comes down to is three stages. We played other people's music, then we wrote our own music; and finally we went back to doing other people's music. But it was for the better because after we wrote our own songs and played them we found that it was easier to figure out and play other people's music. Plus we're also more experienced.

ANGRY: Do you practice often?

WACKER: It has been just on the weekends. But we're probably going to start practising more because we are getting more gigs.

ANGRY: How do you feel about practise? Because it takes discipline to have a good practise.

WACKER: You'll find in a lot of groups with six or seven guys a few people that would rather do something else than practise, but you can't have this because it destroys the whole group. We once had a guy in the group who was always more interested in cars than music, we told him to make up his mind. He's either with the group or with his car. We have seven guys in our group and we understand that we have to have discipline among ourselves to make practises and be responsible for parts. As soon as one guy fucks up, he fucks the whole group. It's not iron-clad, I mean there are no certain rules. What it is is just a level of consciousness for the group.

ANGRY: We can dig that. Have you had any trouble finding a place to practise? With some groups it's a real hassle.

WACKER: No, we've been lucky so far. We've had the same place for over a year now.

ANGRY: Are the members of the Band from the same hood?

WACKER: No, not really, we're from the same area, Ravenswood district on the North Side.

ANGRY: Did you play around your area a lot at first?

WACKER: We played quite a bit around Amundson, you know, for girls clubs and what not. But we had a lot of competition from other bands at school. It was like you would get a job for a school club and the week before the job they would tell you that the president of the club had a friend who was in a band that would play. So what happened is that you would get fucked out of a job.

ANGRY: Now that you have been playing around, what do you think about benefits?

WACKER: Well, we like to play benefits because it is a way of reaching people and getting our name around. When we played for Angry, it was a way of getting to a whole new bunch of people. We also played a benefit at Loyola in February for the draft resistance. The whole thing about benefits like Angry's is that the spirit of the people are out-of-sight. The people dig the band and really get into it. They appreciate the band. Also you're not charging high prices like $3.00. Some of these clubs charge a lot of money for a benefit and here we are the band getting nothing. Angry had things like free food. It was just that the whole spirit of the people was different.

ANGRY: Do you have a preference for doing benefits for political groups?

WACKER: No, we as a band are not political. We don't feel that we can fight in the street for the revolution, that we can help in our music.

ANGRY: As you said earlier you really dug the audience reaction.

WACKER: Yea, it was just too much people really getting into it. It makes the band feel out-of-sight to see the people digging the music like they did. The way we like to think about it is not that we play at dances, but at a party. So when we play at a dance we like to say Lets make this a party a big get together andeverybody love their neighbor and have fun. You know, at most dances people usually just sit there and watch. What we like to do is just get everybody moving and have a good time.

ANGRY: Did you have any reservations about playing for an Angry benefit?

WACKER: At first we had some bad vibes, like we heard that the people in Angry were nice, but the people who came to the dances weren't. But this isn't true, like all the people we met were out-of-sight. And everybody was just having a good time that we forgot about any fear that we had.

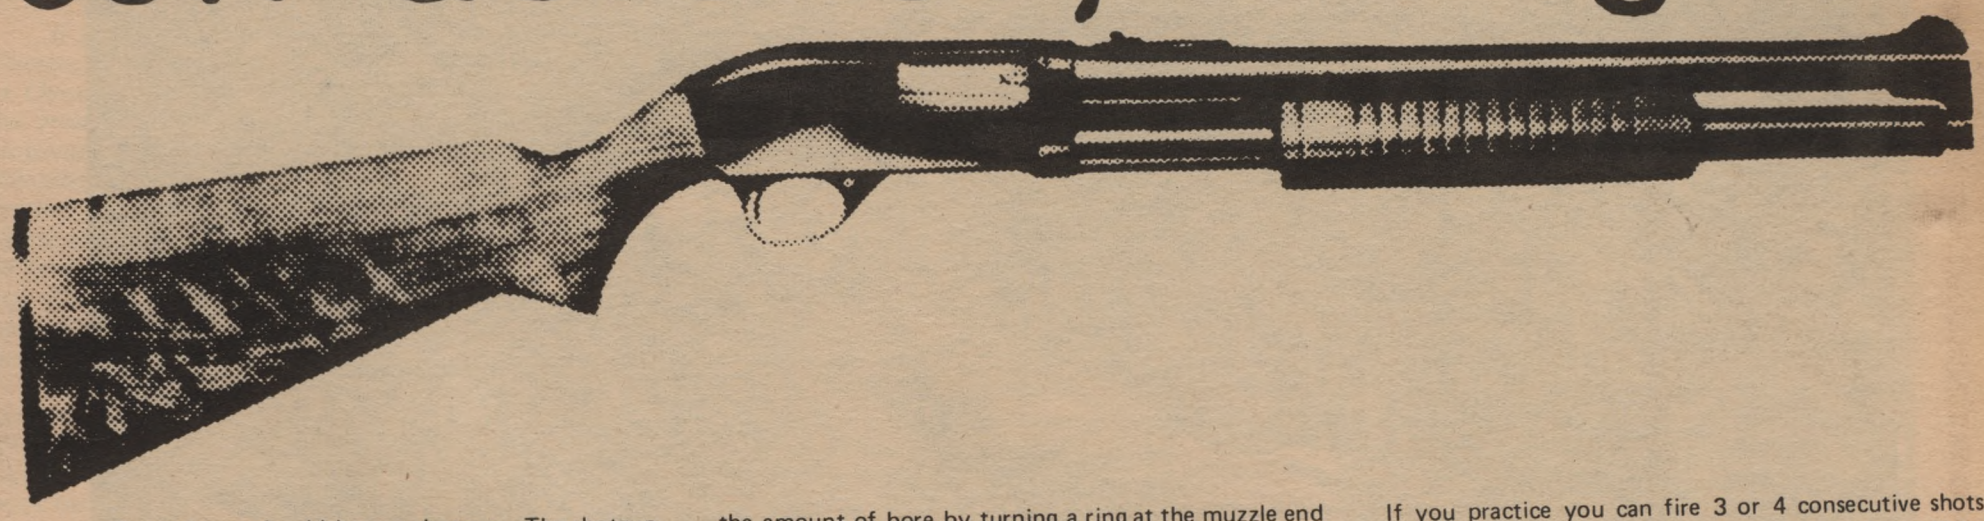
ANGRY: How do you feel now, after the Benefit?

WACKER: It's like you were saying, to have a revolution you have to come together. It was there that night you had freaks, greasers, latins, blacks all having a good time.

ANGRY: It was a dynamite Benefit and you guys played some killer music.

ALL POWER TO THE PEOPLE

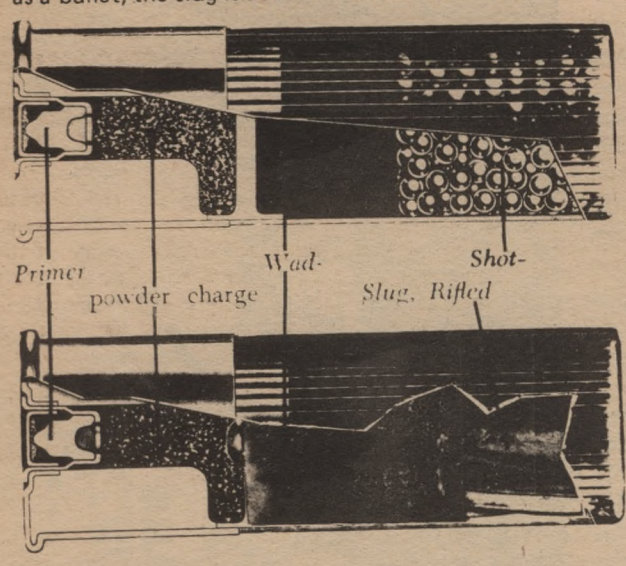
self-defense / shotguns



Every home should have a shotgun. The shotgun is the best self-defense weapon against anyone kicking down your door. Shotguns shoot a number of round lead pellets that scatter outward as they leave the barrel.

SHOT			BUCKSHOT
NUMBER	DIAM. IN INCHES	APPROX. PELLETS IN 1 OZ.	NUMBER	DIAM. IN INCHES	APPROX. PELLETS IN 1 LB.
12	.05	2385
9	.08	585
8	.09	410	4	.24	340
7½	.09½	350
6	.11	225	3	.25	300
5	.12	170
4	.13	135	1	.30	175
2	.15	90
BB	.18	50	0	.32	145
			00	.33	130

There are different sizes and numbers of pellets in shotgun shells. For self-defense purposes, you want .00 buckshot (the load has 9 to 15 pellets, each 1/3 inch in diameter.) You might also dig the rifled slug load. The rifled slug has only one large projectile (slug) which can weigh up to 1-1/8 oz. Although not as accurate as a bullet, the slug is accurate out to 75 to 100 yards.



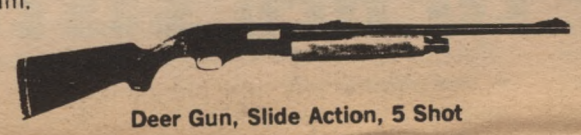
You choose the type of shotgun you want by gauge, chokes and barrel length. Gauge refers to the diameter of the barrel. The largest common gauge is the 12, the smallest is 20. Choke refers to the construction of the last couple of inches of the barrel. If the barrel is constricted (made smaller) it will tend to keep the shot together more. 'Full choke' means the greatest amount; modified choke' is in between; 'cylinder bore' means no choke. Some shotguns have adjustable chokes which vary the amount of bore by turning a ring at the muzzle end of the barrel. Besides the amount of choke, the pattern of the pellets is also determined by the length of the barrel. The shorter the barrel the faster the shot will spread; the longer the barrel, the closer it will stay together. For defending your home you want the shot to spread out rapidly - so you want a short barrel (18 to 20 inches) and cylinder bore.

SHOTGUN TYPES

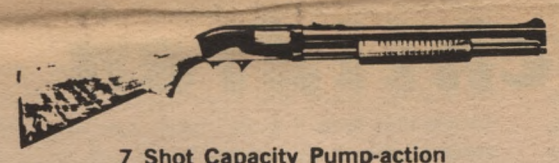
There are many types of shotguns, but for self-defense purposes you are only interested in the pump action and the semi-automatic.

Pump Action -

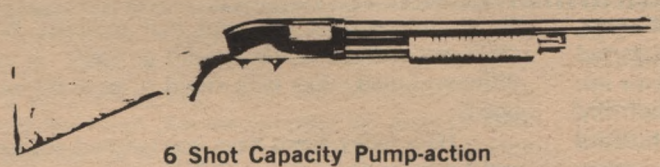
The pump shotgun stores the shells in a tubular magazine below the barrel. To operate the pump shotgun, slam the forearm (the wooden piece on the magazine tube) back - this will eject the fired shell - then slam the forearm forward and this will chamber the next cartridge from the magazine and cock the firing pin. Then pull the trigger. Do this until the magazine is empty usually the magazine holds between 5 and 7 shells.) This gun is very reliable. The only thing to remember is to make sure to slam the forearm hard enough so it doesn't jam.



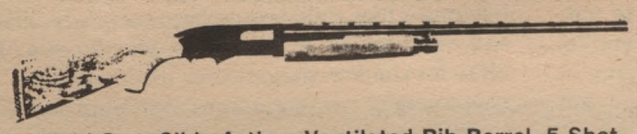
Deer Gun, Slide Action, 5 Shot



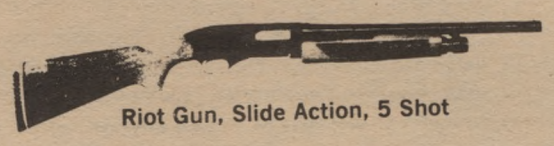
7 Shot Capacity Pump-action



6 Shot Capacity Pump-action



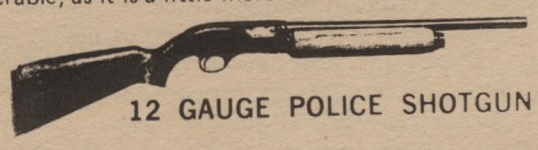
Field Gun, Slide Action, Ventilated Rib Barrel, 5 Shot



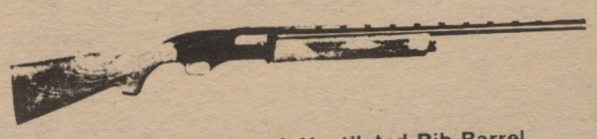
Riot Gun, Slide Action, 5 Shot

Semi-Automatic -

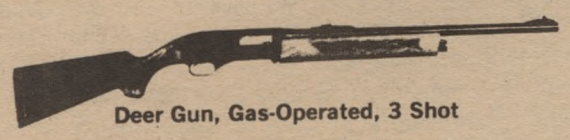
The semi-automatic operates a lot like the pump, except it uses some of the gas pressure to work the action, backwards and forwards. The advantage of the semi-automatic is that all you have to do is pull the trigger - this makes it easier to operate. But semi-automatics have smaller magazine capacity (3 to 4 shells) and are more expensive. For the experienced shooter who can handle the pump gun as fast as the automatic, the pump is preferable, as it is a little more reliable.



12 GAUGE POLICE SHOTGUN



Skeet Gun, Gas-Operated, Ventilated Rib Barrel

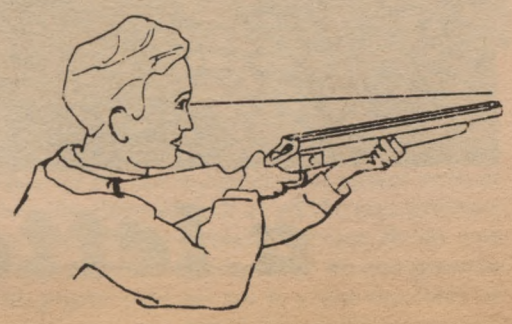


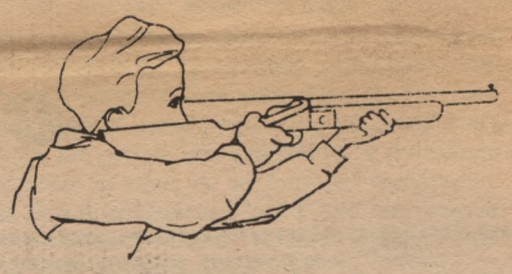
Deer Gun, Gas-Operated, 3 Shot

So for self defense purposes you should get a 12 gauge pump (or automatic) with an 18 to 20 inch barrel with no choke (usually called a riot gun) and load it with 00 buckshot. Up to 40 yards this type of shotgun is the deadliest close quarters gun ever designed. If you practice you can fire 3 or 4 consecutive shots in less than 2 seconds which means 48 pellets will be shot against the target.

SHOOTING THE SHOTGUN

Most shotguns have only a bead front sight (unless it has rifle sights for rifled slugs which is shot like a rifle). To aim this you look over the barrel at the target. Your line of sight is determined by where you put your eye in relation to the barrel. So you should make sure you put your cheek on the same spot on the stock every time you shoot. If your cheek isn't low enough on the stock you'll shoot high and if you crowd the gun too closely your shot pattern will be too low. This is the usual way to shoot the shotgun, but sometimes it might be necessary to shoot from the hip.





Not getting cheek low enough on stock results in shot pattern overshooting target.

CLEANING THE SHOTGUN

Run one or two solvent soaked patches down the barrel (unless it is extremely dirty and then you use the brass brush). Then run 4 or 5 clean patches through, until one comes out clean. Then put a light coat of oil on all exposed metal parts and on the moving parts a letter to my sisters on children

When I was pregnant, so many people said to me, 'How wonderful to have a child of your own.' This started me thinking about how I wanted my child to grow up. Now that I have the baby, I realize that she's not 'my own.' Children are not possessions, they are small humans and must have relationships with other humans - other children and adults. But it's a constant struggle to put what I know into practice. First of all, unless you're with a tight group, the only person around your baby is you. The child ends up relating primarily to you and you and your child end up developing a relationship that excludes other people - this is bad for both of you. I had a lot of friends that got married right after they left high school. After getting married, they complained that they didn't have anything to do and they felt pretty lonely. So they decided the answer was to have a baby. First of all it's a little too much to expect a baby to be the answer to all your emotional problems. And secondly if that's all you think you have, you fall into that possession trap - It's my baby - I'll hold it - I'll feed it - I'll take care of it all the time. There is nothing wrong with loving and caring for a child - it's just when that's all you do and you do it all the time, it's unfair to both the child and you. The child gets used to one persons emotional and intellectual responses and at the same time, the mother is limiting herself dangerously. There is so much more to raising a child than changing diapers. When a child begins to ask questions (and they do - very soon) you have to give them answers, responsible, thought-out answers. Women, mothers, have to respect themselves more than to think that all they have to offer are clean clothes and a teething ring. If women spent some time out in the world their children were going to grow up in - they'd involve themselves in trying to find some solutions to the problems we all face in the world today. At the same time other people would be helping to take care of the child. Other people, men and women, would be bringing their knowledge and insights to the child and children can and must learn to deal with all kinds of people.

I know a lot of children who spent all their time with their mothers and by the time that they are 3 and go to the playground to play with other kids - they freak. They can't deal with other children by themselves, everything has to be checked out with 'mommy.' Now, about the same time, 'mommy' has had it and really wants her child to play on his or her own. Mommy would like a break - but she hasn't done anything to prepare the child to be independant, up until that moment. When the child gets older, the fear doesn't go away - it just takes different forms - like bing afraid to leave the neighborhood.

How many times have you reached out for a child and it cried and turned away? Something is wrong! What is wrong is that child should have been held, kissed, loved and cared for by all the people who did care. Responsibility for children should come from everyone. If a child does something wrong in front of an adult, doesn't it sound more reasonable for that person to say, 'don't do that because———' rather than 'I'm going to tell your mother.'

There's also the extreme inconsistency in this society, where we don't let those people we know and trust take any responsibility in raising our kids - and then it's time to send them to school and we turn them over to some teacher who is a complete stranger.

There is a better, necessary way to raise children. From the time my baby was born, she had many of my friends taking care of her. She has young people and old people, black and white people, loving her and teaching her. Other women, who feel as I do, that both mothers and children must be free, have gotten together to form an alternative. We take turns, daily, caring for the kids. Men and women, spending time (I day a week) with many kids and in return we have 4 days to devote to building a new society. A society that will take care of its children collectively and teach children love and respect for their brothers and sisters instead of teaching them fear and competition. Parents then will have some free time and won't feel so drained and tied down.

We have been brought up in this dog-eat-dog individualistic society. We have been told that men are more important than women. We have been told that whites are better than blacks or latins. We have been told that the Vietnam war is necessary for peace. We have been told a lot of things - including - a child belongs with it's mother. We have cut through most of the other lies - let's cut through this one. It isn't enough that a few people work out a day care arrangement in a small community - we have to demand the facilities for every community to share the responsibility for it's children. As sisters and brothers, we should help those who have children by sharing the responsibility and spending the love - so we can all be free to make revolutionary changes in this society and turn it over to beautiful revolutionary children.

Angry has access to draft counselors, lawyers, etc. So if you're worried about the draft, about the service, and want ideas on how to deal with both, call us. The earlier the better, so we can set up a time to deal with your problems as soon as possible. Call - 472 - 1791

RISING UP ANGRY IS ONLY IN CHICAGO

Recently, it has come to our attention that there is a group in Toronto, Canada, that called themselves Rising Up Angry. They are in no way connected with Rising Up Angry which is at this time based only in Chicago. The Toronto group, after communication with us, have agreed to immediately change their name. We are taking them at their word, for we have been led to believe they are revolutionary brothers and sisters.

When RUA decides to open branches in other cities, people will be informed thru the propaganda arm of our organization, this newspaper. Until that time - any group that calls themselves RUA are opportunist liars and will be dealt with as such.

CENTRAL STAFF - RISING UP ANGRY

PRISONS & JAILS

Rising Up Angry is cooperating with the Black Panther Party in providing free transportation for all parents, relatives and friends to visit their loved ones held captive in prisons, jails, reformatories, "homes" throughout the State of Illinois.

We want people to observe the notorious conditions at these institutions, to see the prisons in operation, and to go to various prison officials and let them know that the people are watching, that things have changed. The actions of these correction officials will no longer be hidden in the darkness of unawareness, but will be exposed in the light of political consciousness by the people.

Contact Rising Up Angry if you want to visit someone, or if you want to help let others know about this program. Rides can be arranged to St. Charles, Sheridan, Vandalia, Menard, Joliet, Pontiac, and house and other places. You should handle visiting arrangements in advance or call if you need help or information in arranging them. All Power to the People! Open the Jails! Long Live the Spirit of Jonathan Jackson!

RAP SESSIONS

A Rising Up Angry member will come to your neighborhood or school and rap about:

1. What Rising Up Angry is and what we believe.
2. What you and your friends and family can do to help make the revolution.
3. Let you know about revolutionary activity going on around the city, throughout the country and the world.
4. We have movies, records and literature that we can bring with us.

These rap sessions should have at least 4 people from your neighborhood, factory, office or school. Get your people together. Call us and let us know when. We're available 7 days a week and can go most anywhere. Together we will arrange a time and place convenient for you and your people. These sessions can be held on a corner, in a church, a basement, park, bar, etc. If you are in school and can encourage your teacher to have us come into your class, do it. Power to the sisters and brothers who help spread the revolutionary word.
RUA--472-1791

CHILDREN

SERVE THE CHILDREN PROGRAM - RISING UP ANGRY has started a new program. We understand that youth is the future - the future of a better world. But this society does not provide for its youth. Diapers, cribs, blankets, clothing, toys, etc. are ridiculously expensive. Sometimes beyond peoples means. So RUA is going to supply these things free. If you can help - if you have any of these things (in good shape) - call Angry at 472 - 1791.
